To-morrow a Day with Marks of Distinction.

A few nights ago Joe Jefferson in one of his felicitous speeches before the curtain, said: "If I could say the half I mean, you wouldn't think I meant the half I said." And so in reference to our offerings to-morrow, if we were to really use half the forceful language that they truly deserve, it might seem as if half were exaggeration. But to-morrow will surely bear marks of distinction. We've never gathered a better collection of sincerely worthy merchandise, the best of which can be but half told in our announcement. You are the partner, as it were, who is always the silent party to our every bargain purchased. It is you who guarantees our best and most sincere service by your appreciation. And we know full well that to-morrow will please and repay every visitor with an interest compound on compound.

A Phenomenal Offer of Silks.

69c. for $1.00 27-Inch India Silks, Printed in Lyons.

This is one of the best, if not the very best, silk offers we have ever made. And you all know our supremacy in silk selling. Not only have you a saving of 31 cents a yard—and that counts up on a dress—but you get silks of an unsurpassed quality and that have always commanded at least $1.00 a yard throughout Greater New York. They are extra wide, the designs the best and very pretty, just what you demand; in fact, they are perfection, and at the price of 69c., an irresistible bargain.

65c. for $1.00 24-Inch Printed Foulard Silks.

And these silks are of the quality that have sold regularly all this season for $1.00 a yard. This lot is a late arrival and has to be sacrificed. Dark, medium and light ground, every one a silk gem, and no duplicates, either. Regular $1.00 pure Silk Foulards at 69c. is indeed a notable offer.

A Striking Offer of Tailored Suits.
